

Voting

The method of voting shall be at the discretion of the President with consent of the Board, except where specified by law. Exceptions include bond issues and closed sessions. Negative votes shall be recorded by name. The President shall be expected to vote on all issues before the Board.